Two-Way Interactive Distance Learning Classes Student Contract

School District Name & Number: _____

Student's Name: _____

Course: _____ Hour: _____ Instructor: _____

Two-Way Interactive Distance Learning is a means for districts to provide low-incidence courses that normally would not be offered to students because of low enrollment or lack of qualified personnel.

Because of the uniqueness of Two-Way Interactive Distance Learning, certain standards are expected of students enrolling in these courses. This policy is intended to make both the students and parents aware of the standards expected of students enrolling in such courses.

STUDENT ASSURANCES

As a student taking a Two-Way Interactive Course, I am aware that:

1. Certain standards are expected of me, as a student, and insubordination of any kind will not be tolerated. Insubordination is defined as anything that interferes with teaching or learning in the classroom.
2. Inappropriate language or gestures will not be tolerated.
3. Because of technology, anything I do in the classroom can be taped and may be used for both administrative, discipline, or staff development by High Southwest Plains Network.
4. Classroom procedures must be followed.
 - a. Students must sit within camera view at all times.
 - b. Students must not mishandle the equipment in the classroom.
 - c. Students must follow all other rules as specified by the teacher.

The following procedures will be followed for students who cannot follow the above listed rules.

First Offense: The student will be given a verbal warning and told that his/her parents will be notified by a letter of the infraction. The classroom teacher will mail the letter to the parents. A copy of the letter will also be sent to the student's principal and HSPN Coordinator.

Second Offense: The student will be removed from the classroom.

SEVERE MISCONDUCT: The student will be removed from the classroom.

I have read and understand the policy above, and agree to articles stated. I also give HSPN permission for my name, photograph and other general information to be used for promotional purposes.
